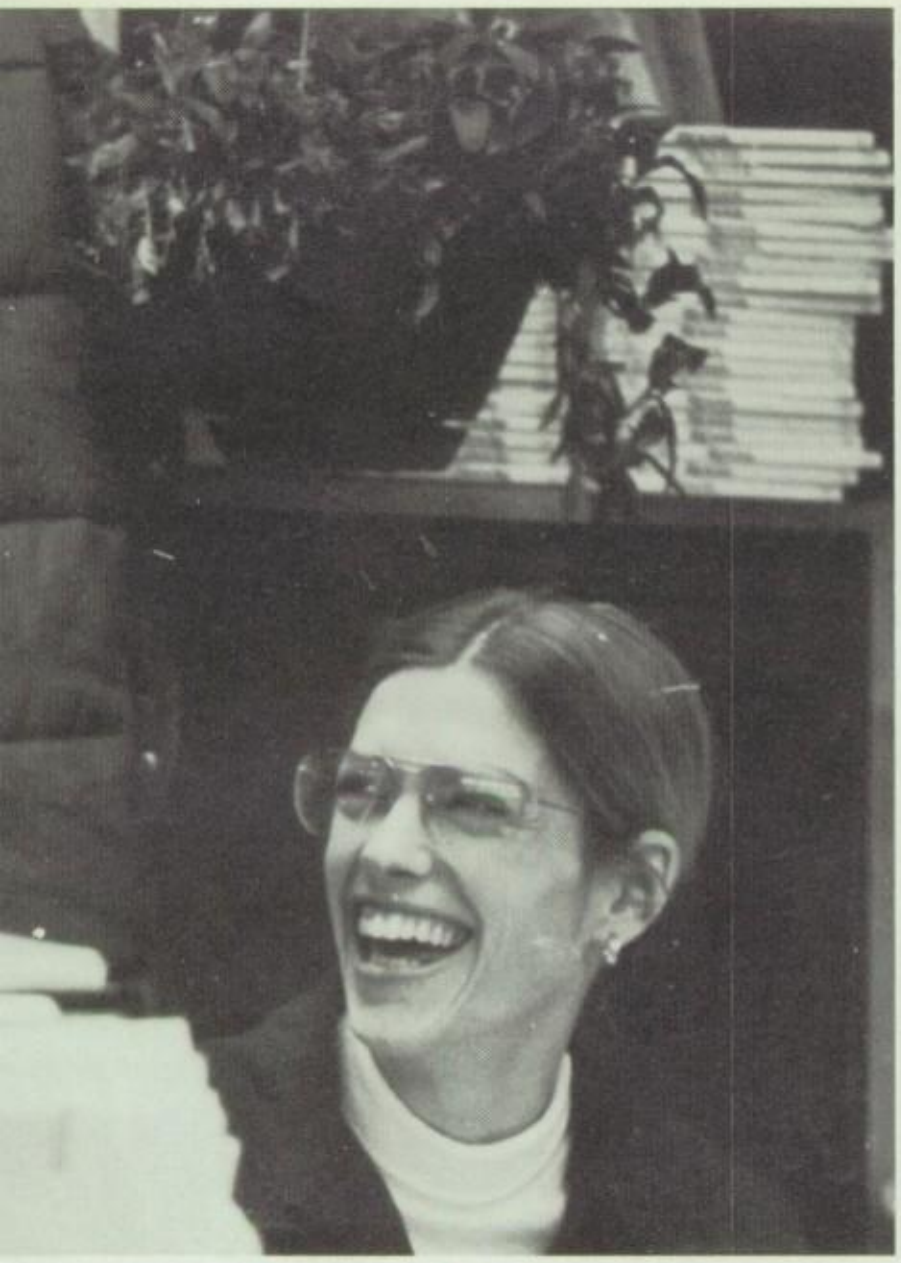
Miss Oliver has been as dedicated to her classes as she is to the Giants ever since she started teaching at South Seneca. She came to us in 1972, from Fredonia where she graduated with a Bachelor of Science degree. She has been teaching Geometry and Psychology classes for the past 7 years, as well as being an active participant in the school's athletic department. Miss Oliver has coached our field hockey and volleyball teams on to great seasons, and her cheery scorecards and "We will beat Penn Yan!" buttons have really sparked school spirit. This year has been an especially exciting one for Miss Oliver with outstanding athletic achievements as her teams and even the Giants are doing well! We would like to show our appreciation for her enthusiasm and hope that her future years are as good as this one.

Coach, Advisor, Teacher, Friends



Mr. Richard Curtiss

Mr. James Turo

Mr. Richard Curtiss, a 1956 graduate of Ithaca College, came to South Seneca in 1968 after twelve years at Romulus. He teaches a variety of business courses ranging from typing to general business. The students of this school would like to thank him for his assistance and encouragement.

Mr. James Turo was Ovid's Highway Superintendent for seventeen years, and in 1965 became the superintendent of building and grounds in the Interlaken School. He has been with South Seneca ever since and we would like to show our appreciation for his excellent care.

Mr. Roland Degraw is a familiar face to South Seneca's students. He has held his present position on the custodial staff for twenty-seven years. We would like to thank Mr. Degraw for his years of service and assistance.

Mr. Donald Terry, a custodian at the middle school, has been with our school since 1951. We will miss him, as he is retiring this January.

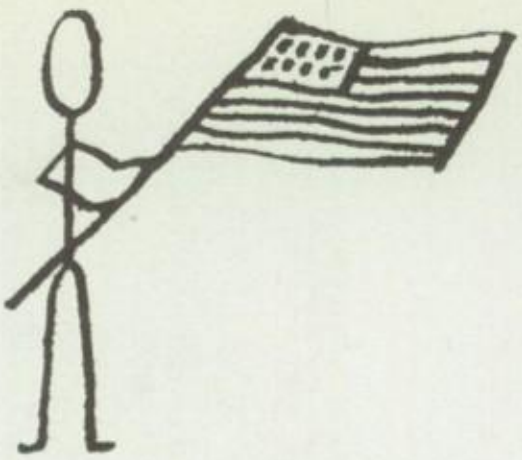
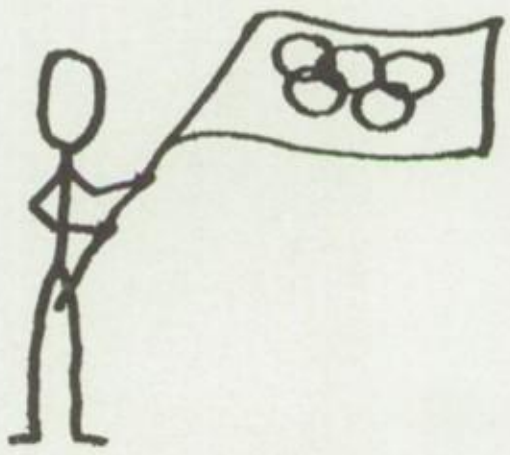
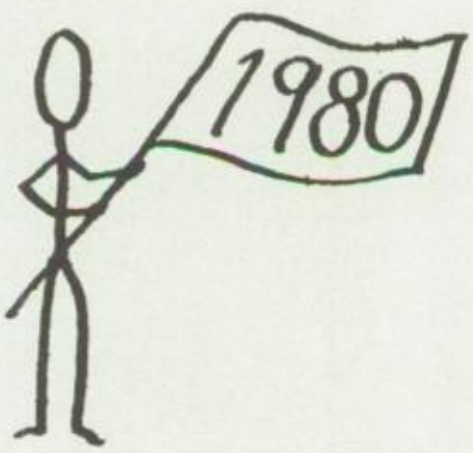
Opening Ceremonies







For four years we have been working, pushing ourselves beyond old limits, discovering new challenges and conquering them. We have been working toward a goal and looking past the attainment of that goal to seek new tests.

Like Olympic competitors who run for hours to build stamina, so have we agonized over multiplication tables. As gymnasts perfect basic moves before performing complicated routines, so do we master fundamental skills before tackling major works. And even as the athlete awaits the starter's gun, so do we anticipate graduation, when we will begin to see if our training has paid off.

POINT

The ideals of the Olympic athletic competition are the promotion of sportsmanship, pride in individual achievement and "peaceful and courteous internationalism," in the words of Baron Pierre de Coubertin, founder of the modern Games. If the United States sends athletes to Moscow, it will be a concession to the Soviets, who are making a mockery of these ideals. We must boycott the Olympics.

The public immediately cries out, "Don't politicize the Olympics." Unfortunate as it may be, the Olympic Games have rarely been above politics. In 1936, Hitler turned the Berlin Games into a propaganda show for Nazi Germany. In 1956, several Arab nations boycotted the Olympics because of the Anglo-French seizure of the Suez Canal. The 1968 Games are remembered for the black-power demonstration on the American victory stand. Nearly 30 African countries did not attend the Montreal Olympics in '76 and in 1972, eleven Israelis were murdered by Palestinian terrorists in Munich. To veto a boycott to protect the purity of the occasion is a very weak excuse.

The hosting of the Olympics is an honor that Russia has been seeking for years. The absence of the United States team, and the 23 teams that have pledged to follow the American standard, would be a tremendous blow to both the Soviet's pride and economy.

Russia has spent almost $3 billion dollars to prepare arenas and stadiums, housing, transportation, eating and sanitary facilities. Without the influx of tourists, journalists and competitors they expected, the Soviets could face uncomfortable debts. If we go to Moscow, we will be contributing to Russia's financial support, perhaps paying for more tanks to crush more people.

In the past few years, our country has been accused of resting on its laurels. We smugly assume we retain "number one" status. We have been plagued by domestic unrest, a floundering economy, nationwide apathy and an Iranian fanatic who is making us look ridiculous. Twenty-three nations have committed themselves to following the lead of the United States Olympic Committee. We must affirm their faith in American leadership and take a strong position.

To confirm our belief in the Olympic ideals, to devastate the Soviet's pride and economy, to show the world we're still on top — we must say, "HELL NO — WE WON'T GO — TO MOSCOW!!"

We Boycott Olympics?

COUNTERPOINT

eeze of '79

In late February, President Carter formally announced that the U.S. would boycott the Moscow Olympics in retaliation for the invasion of Afghanistan. While every American should stand behind both the flag and the President during such a crisis, is an Olympic boycott an appropriate response to a military invasion?

When the Russians invaded Afghanistan, they assumed that there was not much the U.S., or any other nation could do about it. And, to a large extent, they were correct. Afghanistan is too secluded (between a hostile Iran and an ambiguous Pakistan) for any military intervention on our part, and a retaliatory move, such as blockading Cuba, as Ronald Reagan had suggested, might expand the problem to world-wide standards. The only alternatives for the U.S. were economic boycotts and political pressure, and these were exercised, but, as the Soviets realized, these actions were only minimally effectual at best.

With the Soviets showing no sign of strain and an election approaching, Jimmy Carter felt more was needed, and he suggested that an Olympic boycott would be forthcoming if the Soviets did not evacuate Afghanistan. Quite obviously, this had the Russian troops shaking in their boots. As this was the only seemingly effective move Carter had made against the Soviets, it was applauded and supported by the American people. It is unfortunate that the unity and outrage that we felt at the invasion had to be channeled into so unlikely and inappropriate a resolution as an Olympic boycott. As those of you who watched the Winter Olympics know, the spirit of the Games transcends international and national foreign policies. It is an ideal that has brought men together to compete in athletics regardless of their race or political affiliation, and traditionally political differences have been suspended for the length of the events. Even athletes from Athens and Sparta, arch-enemies in ancient Greece, participated freely in the Olympic games. The philosophy and spirit of the Olympics should transcend current politics and motives, and it is unfair that the President should expect American athletes to sacrifice their chance for participation in the Olympics simply because he cannot think of any other way to fight back.

Women in The Military

for Games Taken for 'Ride'

Although there was no official soccer team this year, enthusiasts of the sport got together twice a week during the fall for intramural competition. Mr. Manaseri coached this rowdy bunch, and even joined some of the games. "Co-ed Tuesday" involved four mixed teams, while on "Sexist Thursday" two girls' teams and two boys' teams battled each other for goals. Finishing up the season was the annual challenge match with the Cross Country team, in which the soccer players came off victorious with a 4-1 win.

Bottom: Miss Oliver, Field Hockey coach for the last several years, though pleased with this year's season, is sorry to see the end of the sport at South Seneca.

End Of An Era, Beginning Anew

Left: Exchange student Felix Lisboa dribbles past Ken Cavanaugh. Bottom: Mr. Thompson relaxes as he takes in some field hockey action, for the last time at South Seneca.

South Seneca Falcons ended this year's field hockey season sporting their best record ever. This was entirely fitting, as it is to be our last year in competition, due to a decrease in participation. When the girls eligible were polled, many less than the necessary 22 intended to try out.

Next year South Seneca, along with Penn Yan Academy and Honeoye Central School, will join the ranks of the present 16 girls' soccer teams in the Finger Lakes League. This will leave only four field hockey teams in competition.

Some tough competition can be expected, but we have high expectations of the talent from the intramurals soccer teams of the past two years.

World Wide Competition

This year, Ted Benson, Cindy O'Connell, Cindy Cummings, Kelly Murphy, and Karen Beardslee are taking a European trip to Bavaria and Tyrol. They will leave by bus, and after arriving at New York, will take a jet flight to Frankfort, Germany. Some of their itinerary includes visiting Heidelberg Castle, going to Ulm, the birthplace of Albert Einstein, taking a cablecar ride to Hafelekar peak, and visiting the historic Abbey of Wies. They shall attend a Glockenspiel performance, and visit Salzburg where Mozart was born. Mrs. Johndrew is heading up the group, and she is very excited about this trip.

Our 1979 exchange with Bell High School of Nepean, Canada, proved very interesting. We spent four days in Canada, and had an activity planned for each day. Included in our itinerary were a boat tour of Ottawa, visiting the Parliamentary buildings, and eating at the Spaghetti Factory. We all had a wonderful time, and were exhausted at the end of our trip.

S.S.C.S. Music Boosters are hard at work, planning a trip for members of the band and chorus. This trip will take place in the spring of '81, and will include marching at Disney World. It will take a lot of money-raising to get us underway, and we need your help.

The Senior trip this year will be from March 14th to March 18th. They are planning on going to Washington D.C., and the cost of the trip was adjusted according to how much work was done for the class. We sincerely wish them many happy returns on this trip, and the best for their near future.

Vo-Pro's In Amateur Action . . .

The T-S-T Boces Area Vocational Program offers its students a chance to learn a trade and develop the skills needed for entering the world of work after high school. Course work is available in the following areas: Automotive; Health Services; Personal Services; Metal Trades; Building Trades; Food Prep.; Printing; Drafting; Commercial Art; and others. Despite the long bus haul, it is definitely a program worth the effort.

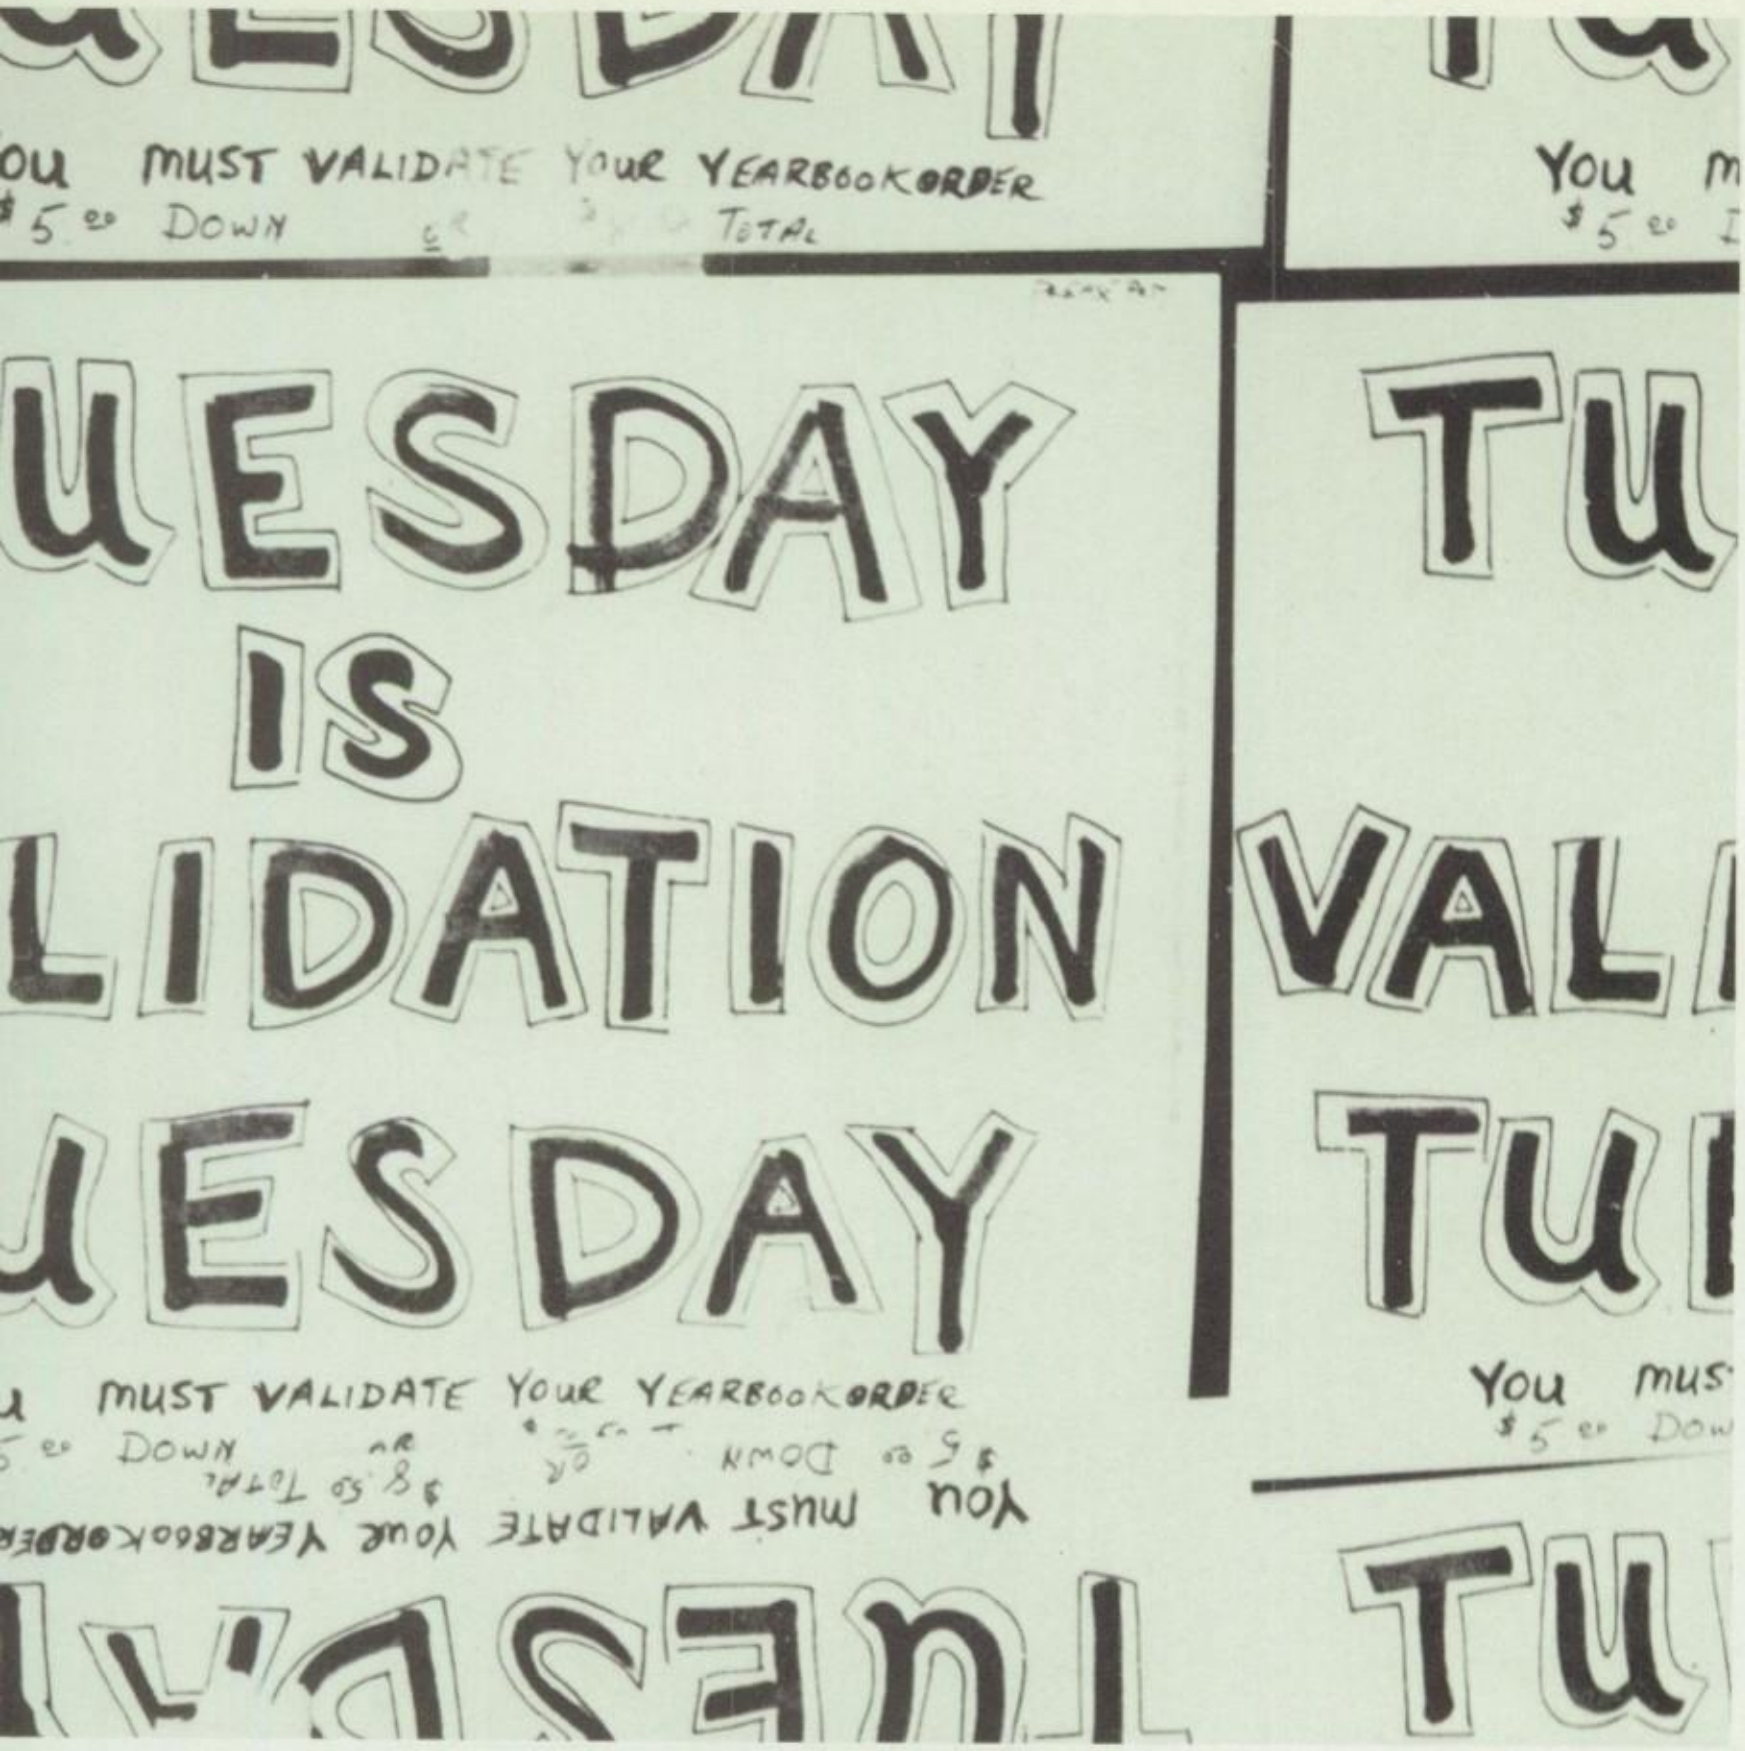
The Newspaper Club was organized two years ago by a few members of our school. They entitled it "The S. S. Scoop." They report on the major happenings of our school (and sometimes the minor), they include games, and even happy ads in the Scoop also. We look forward to more editions of the Scoop.



Each year the yearbook staff creates the "body" of our annual book, just as the Olympics builds up the bodies of the athletes for competition. Mr. Manaseri, the advisor, along with Allan McDonald and Robin Nass as co-editors, help to organize our efforts. Each member of staff is responsible for certain pages, selling ads, and selling yearbooks. We hope we have and always will create an excellent yearbook.

The Musical "My Fair Lady" was performed by the school this year. With expert help of Mr. Manaseri and Mr. Gerlach, they put on a well received show. Ted Benson and Robin Nass portrayed the main characters, Professor Higgins and Eliza Doolittle. The tryouts were held in November and practice began in late December, early January. The crew made their own set and most of their props. Many spent their extra time making paper flowers for the play. Over all, it was an enjoyable play to be in and to see.
Roll over Rex Harrison!

This year our band, under the direction of Robert "Duke" Gerlach, performed two successful concerts. Both the winter and spring concerts went over well with all. They also participated in many other activities including fund raising projects. These projects will help those students who are planning to participate in the Walt Disney World trip next spring. Congratulations for great performances.

The South Seneca marching band took on some new looks this year. Patti Pritchard has become the featured majorette and now performs a routine composed of tosses and acrobatics. Connie Voorhees, the new drum majorette, has taken over for Julie Powell, who graduated last year. Connie was seen for the first time with her new position, during the Homecoming Half-Time Show. Debbie Jones, taking over for her sister, Linda, is the new colorguard captain.

During this past summer, the band, marching to the tunes of "Mickey Mouse" and "Over There" did very well. They took first place at the Trumansburg Fair for the second year in a row. Everybody is looking forward to the scheduled trip to Disney World in 1981. Plans and fund raising projects are now in progress. Everybody is very enthusiastic.

The chorus consists of a group of students, singing because they enjoy it and trying to better the school through their sharing of song with the surrounding community.

Athena was the Greek Goddess who protected and watched over music. The students in the chorus this year are the watch-keepers of song.

Parade Of Nations

The International Club, this year, is open to anyone who wishes to join. This includes any French, Spanish, or English speaking student. Miss Marichal, the foreign language teacher, advises the group. A few of the students are planning a trip to France, while others are going to Germany. The club sold flowers, had a game night, and had a marathon dance. The club is having a good year.

The Media Center/Audio Visual Club consists of members whose main purpose is to assist in the orderly functioning of the Media Center and the school's audio-visual equipment. Specific jobs range from shelving books to assisting with the use of video equipment. A used-book sale in the fall turned out to be both a welcome service to the school as well as a worthwhile money-making activity for the club. The High School group is headed by Mrs. Burgevin, and the Junior High library club is under the direction of Mrs. Tokar.

Golden Laurels

Leadership, Service, Character, and Scholarship are the four characteristics on which election to membership in the National Honor Society is based. This honor, the highest our school bestows, has been received by 25 present members. The group has instituted two new activities already this year; Homecoming booster signs on football players' lockers and an after-school cart of fresh fruit to sell to students.

Each year, the local American Legions select outstanding students in all areas of scholastic life to represent our area at a statewide conference. They are then sent to Cazenovia College (Girls' State) or to Morrisville College (Boys' State) where they set up a hypothetical government and partake in various leadership activities.

The Competition

Off The Track, And On The Field

This year's cross-country team did very well. Jim Law surprised everyone with his fine performances. John VanderWeide also helped the team accumulate a record of 6 wins 5 losses and take second in the class C sectionals. This year's team was the best in 3 seasons and we are looking forward to many more.

The field hockey team had their best season ever: 6-6. Their last game against Dundee was the climax of the year, since it ended in overtime and a double flick-off and gave them a chance to play this team again for a shot at the Sectionals.

Our Varsity Football Team suffered through a 1-7 season, plagued by injuries in its opening games. The highlight was its sole victory over Romulus in the Warrior's homecoming bout. Coached by Mr. Arcangeli and Mr. Adams, and co-captained by Jim McGonigal and Don Schneider, the team regrouped from their initial drubbings to make a respectable showing in later games.

This year's JV Football Team wound up its season with a 2-4-1 record. Many of the losses were caused by numerous mistakes, which were undoubtedly due to the team's inexperience. The highlight of the year was a 12-0 victory over DeSales. Although the Falcons struggled throughout the season, Coach Davie felt his team "played well all year."

The Thrill Of Victory And . . .

This year, our falcon ladies are in second place in the league. A spot that Coach Thomson didn't think that they could achieve with the loss of last year's high scorers. Second only to undefeated Bloomfield, this year's team only lacks an outside shooter and a large, supportive crowd to cheer them on. Way to hustle Lady Falcons, keep up the good work.

Winning seasons on the hardwood have been a long standing tradition at South Seneca, and this year's squad proved to be no exception to the "rule." The fighting Falcons finished the year 17-1, with the only loss coming at the hands of arch-rival Romulus. That loss was avenged twice later by beating the Warriors on their home court 67-60, and by beating them again 62-59 in over-time at CCFL. Also during the course of the season, Coach Guinan hit the 200 win mark with our victory over Dundee. A well balanced team, led by eight seniors, the boys earned their beginning season rank of #4 in small schools for NYS, and their #1 seeding in Section 5 class B. Chalk up one more gold!!

To compliment a fine varsity season, Mr. Shephard's J.V. round-ballers did not let a single game get by them. South Seneca does expect a super season from them next year.

Each one was made close by contributions by "Honey Boy" McWhorter, "Mad Dog" Saylor, "Wild Man" Corning and the rest of the guys!" said Mr. Alsheimer, the 7th grade coach. Mr. Roger Adams, 8th grade coach, reported the records — 7th — 1-5, 8th — 3-3.

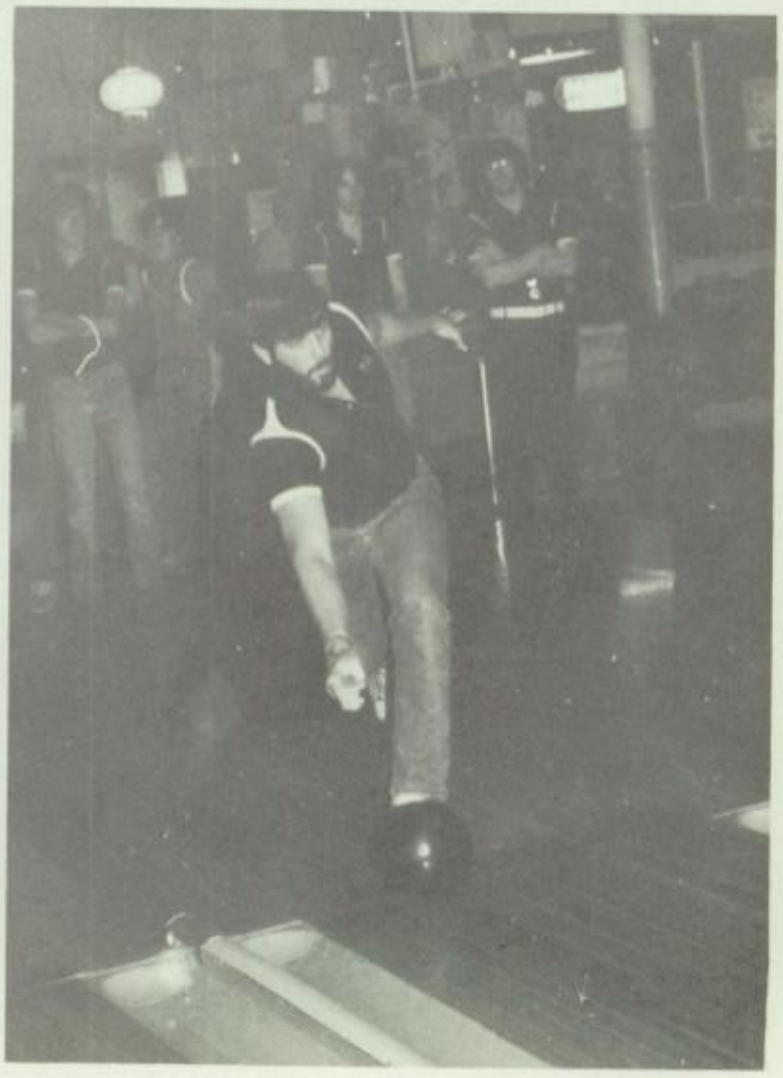
The Falcon Rollers Western Division Champs

With Robert Goodwin coaching his first year, the bowling team ended their season with an outstanding record of 39-9. With this season's end we lose Seniors Chris Slike, Bob Kelly, and Mike Kaiser. Chris ended his second straight season with no series under 500. Mike did very well, for joining the team as a senior. Bob Kelly will be a big loss to the team (as well as the other two) but hopefully the newcomers next year will make up for them.



Sparking The Olympic Spirit

Cheerleaders and peppers have helped the players and wrestlers quite a bit this year with their spirit and pep. There are eight peppers and their advisor is Cindy Updike. They have done a fine job in cheering the wrestlers on to many victories. There were nine football cheerleaders and they never gave up or lost their spirit under the direction of Miss Colbourn. There were thirteen basketball cheerleaders, but due to injury and illness, there are only eight left. Mr. Davie is their advisor. Even though they lost a lot of their members, they have done well and even came in second in the Tip Off Tournament Cheerleading Competition.

Wrestling 1979-80
From Coach Paul Davie:
"The season has been highlighted by a strong second place finish at the Newfield Christmas Tourney with a first place finish by Mike Betts, seconds by John Betts and Gary Teeter, a dramatic 31-30 win over Lyons led by Bob Haskin and Herb Farr's pressure wins for the victory, and an explosive 51-12 thrashing of Sodus.
While the 79-80 grapplers led by seniors Mike Betts, Bob Haskin, and Herb Farr, appear to be headed toward a better than .500 season, the future looks promising with more than twenty underclassmen on the team showing improvement and a winning attitude."

Victorious Volleyers

The 1979 Volleyball team captured its first Finger Lakes Championship with an 11-1 record. To add to the accomplishments, out of the 33 games in all of the matches, the Falcons won 30. Their only defeat was at the hands of Naples, who finished second in the league. The Falcons brought Coach Oliver a victorious and extremely satisfying season. Our Japanese exchange student, Sachiko, was a real asset to their efforts this year.

This was the first year girls' volleyball had to win the best 3 of 5 games in order to win a match. There is a possibility that there will be a J.V. league as well as Varsity next year.

Teamwork makes the track team. It's a sport that takes hard work and sweat, mixed with fun and the sense of fulfillment you feel when you have finished a job and know you have done your best.

Relays, hurdles, high jumping — these are just a few of the events involved. The members put forth a lot of effort to make the team the best it can be, as well as building themselves up for each new test. Who knows? They may be the future decathlon champs!

The FALCON Netmen had a respectable 10-40 record, considering their lack of experience. Paced by its only returning letterman, Jim Gaudette, and fortified by the outstanding play of eighth grader Cindy Dresser, the racketeers turned in a fine rebuilding season. Coach "Man" expects a sound performance out of a young but experienced squad this year.

Coached by Mr. Arcangeli, and paced by sectional qualified Mike Wambold, the golf team turned in a fine season, placing third in a tough league. With the return of many starters, the team can look forward to another fine spring.

This past season the Falcon Varsity Baseball team won the Finger Lakes West Championship with a 12-2 league record. They went on to the sectional semi-finals where they bowed to Holley in a close one-run decision. Four seniors: Dave Martin, Paul Koehler, Doug Goodwin, and Ed Dickerson graduated after having fine seasons. A good nucleus of underclassmen will return, so South Seneca is looking forward to another fine year on the ball diamond.

THE SOUTH SENECA MUSIC BOOSTERS . . .

President — Winnie Jones

Secretary — Mary Worrell

Treasurer — Doris Wilson

wish to congratulate the class of '80. Our organization has supported our school's "music," athletic and yearbook programs. We have also contributed to the South Seneca and Interlaken Ambulances, and we wish to thank the people who have supported us in our fund-raising projects.
